

WHERE HISTORIC EVENTS ARE MADE

Bisham
Abbey

EVENTS, CONFERENCES,
OCCASIONS & VENUE HIRE

Once home to Henry VIII and Elizabeth I, Bisham Abbey is a site of rich historical significance. Nestled on the border of Berkshire and Buckinghamshire, the breathtaking grounds rest on the banks of the River Thames and offer a truly unique setting.

GROUNDS FOR CELEBRATION

Today, this historic estate offers a spectacular setting for everything from intimate gatherings to larger-scale events for up to 140 guests. With elegant accommodation, exceptional on-site catering and Premier Status Hospitality Accreditation, every detail is designed to ensure a seamless, unforgettable experience.

Whether you're planning a conference, workshop, christening or wedding, Bisham Abbey's unique and versatile spaces blend character, elegance and flexibility: creating the perfect backdrop for truly memorable occasions.

Did you know?
Henry VIII granted Bisham Abbey to Anne of Cleves as part of their divorce settlement. And it was an old house even then - with parts of the manor house dating back to 1260.
